

CTOM SPON ZONE Problem
The Capital Of OMER

Judge: Preparation:

- Set a table with five chairs for competing team members.
- Provide a copy of the problem instructions on the table for the team members.

Judge Instructions:

(Judge: When team members enter the room, tell them)

This is a verbal problem. You have 1 minute to select the five team members who will compete. The others must sit in these seats and watch or be escorted from the room. They may not assist in solving the problem and may not talk.

(Judge: After 5 Team Members Chosen and seated, Read all the instructions, repeat, then Start the Time)

1. You will have 2 minutes to think, followed by 3 minutes to respond. You may ask questions; however, time will continue. Do not talk to each other at any time.
2. You will receive 2 points for each regular response and 3 points for each creative response.
3. Once time begins, it will not be stopped, even if a judge asks you to repeat a response, clarify it, or give a more appropriate response. Speak loudly and clearly.
4. When response time begins the judge will point to a team member to respond, you will respond in clockwise order around the table until response time ends. If a team member is stuck, the team is stuck – each team member must respond with an acceptable answer.
5. It is 2017 and through a surprising sequence of events, OMER has just become President of the United States and wants to bring creativity to our government. Your problem is to say something that OMER might say as President. You might say, “My first order of creativity is to appoint a Chief of Laugh.”

(Judge: Repeat all the instructions, then Start the Time)
